

GEN. BRAGG MAY GO TO HAVANA

Pres. Roosevelt Names Him for a Consul Generalship in That City.

CAME UNSOLICITED

High Honor for the Commander of the Famous Old Iron Brigade.

SURPRISE TO VETERAN

Washington, May 7.—Gen. Edward S. Bragg, of Fond du Lac, Wis., has been appointed Consul General in Havana, and Herbert G. Squires minister to Cuba.

GENERAL EDWARD S. BRAGG.

the president—namely, that the minister to Havana should be a man of diplomatic experience. He is a native of Canada, but was appointed from New York. In 1894 he was appointed second secretary of the United States embassy at Berlin, retiring in 1897. In January, 1898, he was appointed secretary of the United States legation at Peking, remaining there constantly until a few months ago, when he returned to the United States on leave. His connection with the defense of legations during the Boxer uprising attracted attention. He has had military experience, and by virtue of that fact was practically in charge of the legation defenses.

General Bragg was commander of the "Iron Brigade" during the civil war. He is a Cleveland Democrat who bolted the Bryan nomination in 1896 and stumped Wisconsin for Palmer and Buckner. In 1900 he supported McKinley and Roosevelt against Bryan and Stevenson.

His nomination is said to be the president's without solicitation on the part of the Wisconsin delegation in congress, but it is entirely acceptable to both Senators Spooner and Quarles.

General Bragg served a term in congress. He seconded the nomination of Grover Cleveland for the presidency in 1888, and elicited great enthusiasm when he said:

"We love him for the enemies he has made."

After his term in congress General Bragg served as minister to Mexico. He is seventy-five years old, having been born in Unadilla, N. Y., on Feb. 20, 1827. General Bragg entered the Union army as a captain in 1861 and was promoted through successive grades until he became a brigadier general.

The salary of consul general at Havana is $5,000.

Wisconsin Delegation Pleased
In respect to the appointment of General Bragg for the consul generalship there among Wisconsin people here today. All the members of the delegation in congress have a warm and kindly feeling toward the general and while the question might be raised by aspirants among the republicans, it was unanimous expression that if the president desires to do a kindly act and remember the services of the gold democrats by such an appointment, the selection of general Bragg would be highly commendable. Senators Spooner and Quarles both expressed themselves along this line when asked today regarding the report.

Likely to Accept

Fond du Lac, Wis., May 6.—While General Bragg seemed surprised at the news, he admitted that he was not altogether unprepared for something in that line. A friend of his at Washington, he said, had written him a short time ago that President Roosevelt wished to recognize him in some way, if he could find a position that would be suitable. No mention had been made, however, of any particular position.

When asked if he would accept the position, if tendered, General Bragg replied that it was too early to talk on that point. He said, however, that because of the climate and its nearness to home Havana would be a particularly desirable place.

Queen Feels Better

Het Loo, May 7.—The Queen's condition was somewhat improved this morning and the risks is apparently over.

WOMEN'S FEDERATION BARS COLORED CLUBS

Convention, by Overwhelming Vote, Refuses to Admit with the Dark-Skinned Sisters.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 6.—After a two hours' discussion of the question of admission of colored women into the Women's club the antioleored women won the day when the convention voted overwhelmingly to accept what is known as the compromise amendment.

Miss Jane Addams and Mrs. Wiles of Chicago took the leading parts on opposite sides of the question. Mrs. Wiles secured the floor at an opportune moment and made an eloquent plea for harmony and unity. Miss Addams stood out for more protection of the weaker clubs and a little better chance for colored women.

While Mrs. Wiles' speech probably had little influence over the convention, it was followed by a motion for the previous question and a decisive vote in favor of the attitude she had taken.

The color question furnished no end of excitement. Missouri insisted on discussing the question, Georgia and Kansas tried to suppress it, while Massachusetts kept still.

Rather than bring the Chicago Woman's club affair into National club politics, Mrs. John D. Sherman has withdrawn from the candidacy for the secretaryship which was being urged by her friends.

Mrs. Lydia P. Williams of Minnesota has appeared in the race for the presidency.

MUST PUMP THE TEXAS OIL WELLS

Flow Ceases After the Central American Earthquake—But the Supply Has Not Been Exhausted.

Houston, Tex., May 6.—The gushers of Beaumont oil field have quit gushing. The demise came some days ago, and just following, if not simultaneously with, the Central American earthquake.

Since the Lucas gusher was struck more than a year ago, over five hundred spouters have been brought in. Those last developed appeared to possess the remarkable vitality of the first, and so far as noted there was no diminution in force or the output.

The settling down of the field has come much more suddenly than the most conservative of the oil men expected.

The effect on stocks was marked, there being a great slump in a number of companies. The public failed to understand the reason why, as the facts were withheld.

The future of the oil field is still regarded as bright, as oil exists in abundance, but the artificial means must be counted upon to remove it, instead of natural forces.

BELOIT PROHIBITS SIDEWALK RIDING

Many Arrests Made Lately, Because of Sidewalk Riding—Adkins Signs with Boston.

Beloit, May 6.—The common council of this city last night passed an ordinance prohibiting the use of sidewalks of the city for bicyclists. For many years sidewalk riding has been tolerated outside of the business districts. The vote on the ordinance was 11 to 1, there is much feeling on the part of the wheelmen against the measure.

There are 2,000 wheelmen in Beloit and the protest is strong as many of our streets, leading to factories are impassible in wet weather even for teams. The police have arrested two Janesville citizens by the names of Jack Dougherty and Jack Delaney, suspected of robbing Hamilton's jewelry store on Sunday night. About $200 worth of goods were secured.

Pitcher Adkins, the best box artist the Middle West has turned out in many years and the mainstay of the Beloit college team, has signed to pitch for the Boston-American league club when he leaves college next month.

In this connection it is stated that Madison will protest if Adkins is put in to pitch in the Beloit-Madison game tomorrow. Hollister declares that if Adkins is not allowed to pitch there will be no game and all games scheduled with Madison will be declared void.

Wm. Hamilton's jewelry store at Beloit was entered Sunday night by thieves and goods to the value of $250 taken. The robbers forced a rear door and cleaned out one of the show cases. Up to the present time no clew to the robbers has been obtained.

EXECUTION WAS VERY DRAMATIC

Boston, May 6.—John D. Cassels was electrocuted at 12:40 this morning for the murder of Mary Lane in Long Meadow on February 21st, 1901. The execution was dramatic because of the impressive prayer by the condemned, who knelt before the chair and in a thrilling voice asked forgiveness for himself and for those put him to death.

Miss Florence Ehle returned to her home in Harvard, Ill., this morning.

SUDDEN DEATH OF BRETHART

The Famous Novelist and Humorist Passes Away in England.

WAS AN AMERICAN

Author of "Heathen Chinee," "Luck of Roaming Camp" "Innocents Abroad."

A SKETCH OF HIS LIFE

London, May 7.—Francis Bret Harte, the well-known American author, poet and humorist, died here last night.

Mr. Harte died at Redhouse, Chamberly. His illness was an affection of the throat and was not thought to be serious until last night when the author suffered hemorrhage, death following soon after.

Francis Bret Harte, the American novelist and poet, was born in Albany, N. Y., on Aug. 25, 1839. His father was a school master and the son was designed to follow teaching as a profession. In 1854, however, he made his way to California, and after working in the mines for a time he became a compositor in a printing office and afterwards an author. In connection with the latter he was drawn into the literary field. He published a volume of condensed novels in 1867 and the following year he became editor of the Overland Monthly and in its pages appeared much of his earliest and most characteristic work. In 1870 he published a collection of poems, among which was the famous "Heathen Chinee," which earned him a wide reputation as a humorist, followed by the inimitable prose sketch of realistic mining life, "The Luck of Roaming Camp." The novelist resided at Glasgow, Scotland from 1870 until 1885 when he settled in London where he actively pursued literary work.

DANISH SEAMEN ON STRIKE

Order to Abandon Union Results in Tie-Up of 300 Vessels.

Copenhagen, May 6.—Denmark, the country where capital and labor are best organized for fighting purposes, is in the midst of an industrial struggle involving important possibilities.

The trouble started when the Danish Steamship Company ordered its seamen to abandon their organization. Three hundred steamers are tied up in Scandinavian ports unable to unload. The shippers threaten reprisals in the shape of wholesale lockouts.

GROWTH OF THE PYTHIAN ORDER

Supreme Chancellor Ogden H. Fethers Sends Good News to Members.

SHOWS A SURPLUS

The Order Owns Some Valuable Real Estate in City of Wilmington, Del.

A BAD SPINAL INJURY

Supreme Chancellor Ogden H. Fethers in his letter for May gives good news to the members of the Knights of Pythias. When Mr. Fethers took control there was a deficiency of about $3,000 and on March 31 the treasury report showed a surplus balance of $31,994.62 President Neely of the board of control reports to the chancellor as follows: "For the month of April the receipts were $160,003.23; the death loss is $93,000; there are 761 new applications for the month, only sixteen less than March."

The membership is at least 500 larger now than at the beginning of the month. Liabilities will be reduced nearly $60,000 this month, bringing us below the $200,000 mark. A year ago our liabilities were as follows: For death claims, $559,000; for Lexington hotel furniture balance, $45,000; miscellaneous claims, $15,000; making a total of $619,000. Counting the assets allowed by the insurance departments the endowment rank is now practically out of debt.

Pay Death Claims Immediately

All death claims are now paid immediately after the filing of the final proofs of the loss. There are only seventeen claims in litigation as against fifty-eight a year ago."

Mr. Fethers gives further good news to knights in the following: "When I visited Wilmington, Del., in December, 1900, I was told by a competent valuer that our Wilmington real estate was worth at least $25,000, and that price was offered. Recently I caused inquiry to be made of Supreme Master at Arms Simmons as to the present value. Under date of April 20 he writes that in his judgment, and also that of the several real estate dealers, the land is worth $1,200 an acre and that the chances are very favorable for increasing in value of all the time. At this valuation the property is now worth about $36,000, and is unencumbered."

Last December the supreme chancellor made a trip to Honolulu and while at sea received a severe injury, which has kept him from attending personally to the business of his office. He says:

Severe Spinal Injury

"While on the way to Honolulu last December a sudden roll of the ship threw me backward against a fixture, causing a severe spinal injury. At the end of ten days I was able to go about with assistance and attend to some duties in Honolulu and San Francisco, arriving home early in February. Unfavorable symptoms developed shortly after, requiring hospital treatment. I have now been at home nearly three weeks and am slowly but surely gaining. My physicians promise complete recovery in a few more months. As I am unable to attend grand lodge conventions, or to assume direct charge of my office, this personal item seems proper. The work is being well cared for by my assistants."

CANDIDATES ARE VERY NUMEROUS

Three Different Men Want the Nomination for Insurance Commissioner on Republican Ticket.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 6.—Candidates for places on the state ticket are beginning to come out in the open and ask for the suffrages of their fellow citizens. The latest arrival in the field is J. E. Broadwell, of Sparta who would like to serve as state insurance commissioner and promises to devote all his time to the office if nominated and elected. This makes three candidates for that place now in the field. Seno M. Host, secretary of the republican state central committee, has had his eye on that office for some time, and R. T. Hazelwood, at present deputy commissioner, would like to succeed his present chief.

Congressman Minor passed through the city yesterday on his way to the ninth district to look after his fences. The congressman declined to discuss the situation, saying he knew nothing of politics. Some of the politicians who heard the statement were unkind enough to intimate that the congressman would be better informed before his return from his district.

Ralph W. Adair, Attorney at Law

Ralph W. Adair, of Janesville, passed the examination for the practice of law in this state before the board of examiners at Milwaukee yesterday. The percentage of successful candidates was small, forty-four taking the examination and only eight passing. None of the seven Milwaukee applicants were successful.

NOTED PRELATE DIES AT NEW YORK

Sudden Collapse of Archbishop Corrigan After the Doctors Had Held Out Hope of Recovery.

New York, May 6.—Archbishop M. A. Corrigan of this city died here last night at 11:05 o'clock.

The death of the archbishop came as a great surprise and shock to those in the archiepiscopal residence. It was more so to the general public, for the last bulletin of the day was that 83 certain were the physicians of an improvement in the condition of the patient there would be no more bulletin that night. Up to 10:30 there was no evidence of collapse—in fact, the archbishop at 10:40 talked with his secretary.

Shortly before 11 o'clock the trained nurses who had charge at the bedside noticed a change. Acting on instructions, the physicians were telephoned for.

At the same time the archbishop's two brothers were summoned to the room, as well as a number of priests. It was seen by the physicians that the end was at hand, and in less than a quarter of an hour his Grace was dead. His last moments were peaceful and without evidence of suffering.

MANY FLAWS IN PRIMARY LAW

Provisions of Stevens' Bill Would Disfranchise Independent Voters.

NEW POINTS MADE

California Court Annulled a Similar Law Because Unconstitutional.

COMPARISON OF VOTE

Subjecting the Stevens primary election bill to further scrutiny, Senator John M. Whitehead, in his fourth letter to The Sentinel, printed below, discusses a phase of the bill which made it unconstitutional, if a decision on a similar point in the California election bill would hold good in this state.

The senator devotes his letter to a discussion of the status of the independent voter and the voter who belongs to a new political party, under the provisions of the Stevens bill, and shows clearly that both would be disfranchised. He points out that a new party would have to have more than 4,000 voters before it could be entitled to a ballot in the primary election. A voter belonging to a party having 3,000 voters would find no ballot provided for him and he could not vote. The voter who belonged to no party would be in the same predicament, since the bill provides that no person should vote any ticket but that of the party with which he is affiliated.

Whitehead's Fourth Letter

Janesville, Wis., May 5, 1902.
To the Sentinel:—The total vote cast in the State of Wisconsin at the last presidential election was 442,501. One per cent of this vote would be 4,425. It was provided in section 5 of No. 98, A.:

"that any political organization, which at the preceding general election was represented on the official ballot by individual nominees only, may have a primary election ballot, as a political party, if any of its said individual nominees received one per cent. of the total state vote cast at such preceding election."

The voter then, had this bill become a law, who cared to "exercise his sovereign right of choice by direct vote," in making nominations for office, would have had to see to it that, at the last primary election held under the law, he belonged to a political organization that numbered more than 4,000 voters. Otherwise he might have found himself disfranchised of his right of suffrage for the want of affiliation with a party of the prescribed size. Here nestled a queer comment upon the language of the platform, when compared with the wording of the bill. Let me quote as follows:

"Sec. 13: There shall be a separate ballot for each political party, upon which the names of its candidates shall be arranged . . . according to surname . . ."

"Sec. 16. At any primary election, no person shall vote any ticket but that of the party with which he affiliates."

Upon the arguments before the committee, the Stevens bill was claimed to be a fulfillment of a platform obligation, while by its very terms, instead of restoring to voters the rights of which they were said to have been deprived, it excluded from its beneficent operation any voter whose judgment or conscience led him to affiliate with a political organization which could not muster a prescribed number of voters. Our constitution and not so limited the right to vote. An election called primary is not different from an election called general. The courts have so decided. At an election, the elector, qualified under the constitution, has a right to vote. This state will maintain its right, not destroy it. A similar provision in a California election law was declared by the supreme court of that state to be unconstitutional. Our legislature rejected the Stevens bill.

Having examined the provisions of the Stevens bill with reference to the ballot to be used at primary elections and with reference to the method to be pursued by candidates, to have their names printed upon the ballot as nominees, I should like to suggest what would have occurred at a primary election conducted under this law. One elector would have presented himself before the election officers, given his name and residence, and expressed his wish to vote. His statement that he was a republican having passed unchallenged, he would have received the ballot of that party.

Another elector would have come forward, and, having identified himself in a similar way, and declared his party affiliation to be democratic he would have received the ballot of that party. A third elector would have attempted to qualify, but having stated that he affiliated with the . . . party, which cast but three thousand votes at the last preceding election, he would have been informed by the judges that no ballot of that party was permitted. Still another elector would have asked to vote. When his party affiliations was inquired into, he would have stated that he belonged to no party he was an independent voter, or, per-

SURE TO SUCCEED

An Interesting Sketch of the Great Corn Manipulator,
by Paul Pry.

HIS LATEST SCHEME

I called on Phillips this week. I was introduced to him by his associate, Edward G. Heeman. I had heard of his youthful appearance, but he seemed even younger than I had anticipated. But his face bore all the marks of truth and sincerity. His recent trials have added maturity. One remark recall distinctly. In speaking of being advertised by his loving friends, he laughingly said:

"The fire of my adversity has purged the mass of my acquaintances."

There is something solid and doughty in the man that can rise from defeat. When any person of really eminent merit becomes the object of envy, or malice, or revenge, the clamor and abuse by which he is assailed is but the sign and accompaniment of his success in doing service to the public. And Phillips is truly a wise man. He took no more notice of it than the moon does of the howling dogs. Her only answer to them is to shine on.

Who bravely dares must sometimes risk a fall, but only little minds are tamed and subdued by them—a Philip mind rises above them.

Phillips has proven faithful to his friends and chivalrous to his enemies—therefore he deserves success. Give me a man young or old, high or low, on whom we know we can depend, who will stand firm when others fall; the friend faithful and true, to the adversary just and chivalrous—in such a one there is a fragment of Rock of Ages.

And Phillips' work is with the cereals—and that means agriculture, which is the noblest of all alchemy, for it turns earth and even manure into gold.

The bulk of the market is the fellow that makes the pockets of the public bulge out. He builds up. He bears down. He seeks annihilation. He is a pessimist, hibernating and living for long seasons on his own vitality, only to be rendered ferocious, brutal, to break out and to destroy everybody in reach.

George H. Phillips is a perennial bull. That is his forte.

I want you to read the manly statement sent out by this map:

George H. Phillips,
"Rialto Building,"
"Chicago."

"I am pleased to announce that I have made arrangements with Irwin, Green & Co., one of the oldest and best firms now doing business on the Chicago board of trade, whereby I can guarantee you the best of service and security. I seek your patronage once more, feeling deeply the humiliation of my past misadventures, but assuring you of such personal attention to the handling of all business sent me as will redeem me in the eyes of those who would cure me, and prove me worthy the confidence of thousands who have, since my last trouble, declared their sympathy and their belief in my honesty."

"I have retained my former offices—in fact everything will be the same as heretofore, except that all transactions on the board of trade will be made in the name of Irwin, Green & Co., and confirmed by them to you, and all margins sent by customers will be placed with and acknowledged by them to you. Correspondence and orders, however, can be addressed to me direct."

"I wish also to say that Mr. Ed. G. Heeman, who was with me during my late business, will again be associated with me, and jointly thank you for past and future favors."

"I have only this apology to make for my last failure: My purse was not quite so long as the other fellows'."

"May I have the pleasure of hearing from you? I beg to remain, very truly yours,"

"Geo. H. PHILLIPS."

"April 23, 1902."

This notice took me to his office. Large, bright rooms, thoroughly in consonance with the man and his associate, Mr. Heeman. I was shown several hundred letters from former clients who had received this notice. Phillips was proud of their contents. I don't blame him. I read them all. From large and small grain dealers, buyers, speculators, from Pennsylvania to western Kansas, the purport of all was:

"Hurrah for George H. Phillips!" "We are with you!" "I'll always send you my orders." "Send you as per enclosed B. O. L. ten cars corn." "Buy me 50 wheat." "Buy me 25 M corn." "Inclosed find $1,500, which place to my credit for margins."

One fellow had received his last dividend from the receiver. It was for quite a considerable amount. It was returned, with the following comments:

"Dear Phillips: I don't want this check. I return it to you. You have my confidence. Use it for margins. When the next bulge comes, I sincerely hope your pocket will be deeper than the other fellows'."

Say—this is worth while. And then, his connection. Irwin, Green & Co.—a million dollar concern. They back Phillips. I don't give them much credit for that. I would do the same thing. They simply have proven themselves sensible business men in getting the Phillips connection. The Public is with G. H. P. He has won before, and he will win again. The firm's address is as shown in the notice—Rialto building, Chicago.

The weekly market letter issued by this firm is a distinctive feature, and mirrors the true state of the market, and the inclination of the firm. This letter is mailed free to any applicant anywhere.

I'd want this letter if I didn't trade with Phillips.

But after all is said and done—the fact remains, the public is indebted to the man, the public is with him, and Paul Pry wishes there were a few more of his kind on the board of trade. Your truly, PAUL PRY, in Chicago Journal.

MANY FLAWS IN PRIMARY BILL

happens a non-partisan voter. He would have been informed that no ballot to fit his case existed. Electors, as the above citations from the oil show, who could not show party qualifications, would neither have been provided with ballots, nor permitted to vote. Under this law, an election officer had no authority to deliver either of the authorized party ballots to an elector who had declared his affiliation with a party whose right to a ballot was not recognized by the law, or to another elector who had asserted his independence and denied his affiliation with any party.

What would have become of the "sovereign right of choice of our party friend whose party was too weak to have a ballot, or of our independent voter who was unwilling to declare an affiliation with any party." A practical illustration of this character shows the working of the bill and increases now far short it of providing a method in making nominations that would enable "every voter" to exercise his sovereign right of choice by direct vote, without the intervention or interference of any political agency.

The distinguished speaker for the bill, whom I so often refer to, must have realized that here were liable to be doubts expressed as to these features of the bill. Anticipating the objections that might be made he said:

"There is not a provision in this bill nor a shadow of a provision which limits in any way the right which the independent voter has under existing laws. There is no provision in this bill which prevents the birth or development of a new political party. It must not be forgotten that it applies merely to primary elections; that candidates can be placed in the field and their names placed upon the official ballot in general elections precisely as they have been. Even the requirement for obtaining a place upon the primary election ballot is very slight and easy of performance. Not every small gathering of men, who may assume to denominate themselves a political party, ought to be represented upon that primary election ballot. A party in order to receive recognition under this primary election measure, ought to be composed of something more than a few voters."

"The boast of the independent voter that he votes only for the person whom he regards as the best man on a nomination ticket, regardless of party policies and party principles, is a public confession of weak judgment."

Whether the friends of the bill were satisfied with these statements of their champion, I am not advised. His explanations did not explain to a member of the legislature who recognized his duty to all parties, and of no parties how it could be as he said in a later portion of his speech that this primary election law would "give to every voter in the state ample opportunity to express his direct choice as to the men whom he wants to hold public office;" nor why it should be that the state should undertake to conduct an election at public expense for some voters, and with an express exclusion of other voters, upon the theory that the citizen had so long remained patient under practices which compel him to hand over the most important of his prerogatives to others to be exercised for him, and with so little regard either to his wishes or his interests."

A GOOD SPINE

In order to get an idea to what extent your spine, column assists in movement try this experiment: Sitting erect, put your thumb on the muscles of the back just above the hip bones, then lift some light object with your right hand. You will feel the muscles under your thumb contract whenever you make any attempt to lift. Every movement of the arms or legs depends upon the integrity of your spine for its successful action. Is it any wonder, then, that the osteopathist uses the arms and legs as levers to affect the spine?

A good spinal column is the foundation of good health. There are thirty-one pairs of muscles which act in harmony to move the separate vertebrae and maintain the suppleness of the spine. If any of these muscles are unduly contracted suppleness is lessened to that extent.

If the movements of your spinal column are normal, you should be able to sit erect, with feet flat on the floor, and turn the body without moving the hips, so you can look directly behind you. You should be able to clasp your hands on the top of your head, chin on your breast, and forehead touching your knees. There should be no tenderness in any portion of the spine.

If, when you are in fixed position chin on chest and forehead on knees, you feel pain in any portion of your spine, that will be found to be a more or less sensitive area to pressure, and it is the weak point in your back. "A chain is as strong as its weakest link." Cultivate that weak spot. Make it strong. Restore its suppleness. Something is wrong with that area or the parts which are in nervous connection with it.

A close examination of your spine will reveal the difficulty. An osteopath knows how to do this best, and any weakness of your spine will be made evident under his educated touch.—Osteopathic Health.

Y. P. S. C. FOURTH ANNUAL PARTY

About One Hundred and Fifty Couples
Were Present, and Enjoyed the Occasion Immensely.

The Y. P. S. C. of Trinity church gave their fourth annual May party at Assembly hall last evening and added another number to their long list of successes. The train which started about nine o'clock could not keep the dancers at home and about one hundred and fifty couples were present and enjoyed the pleasures of the dance.

The hall was decorated with the colors of the society, pink and green. Streamers of these colors extended from the chandelier to the walls, and sprays of green foliage were hung around the sides of the hall. The music stand was decorated with ferns and palms and the players were almost hidden from view. Smith's full orchestra furnished the inspiration for the dance, and the music, as usual, was above criticism. Handsomely gowned young ladies and well dressed gentlemen added much to the pleasure of the scene.

The committees in charge of the party were: Arrangements, Eugene Olin, Will Drummond, Floor committee, Will Drummond, Eugene Olin, Ben Smith, Ernest Knelp.

There were a large number present from out of the city, Beloit, Evansville and other neighboring cities being well represented.

Mt. Olivet Cemetery Rules

A new set of rules and regulations were adopted by the Mt. Olivet cemetery association, which has recently been incorporated and went into effect yesterday. The price of lots in the cemetery were fixed as follows: All lots 10 x 20 feet in the new cemetery, including the first tier of lots of the old cemetery adjoining on the west shall be thirty dollars each, ($30.). The second tier west, twenty-five dollars, ($25.00); the third, twenty dollars, ($20.00); and the fourth fifteen dollars, ($15.); and single graves, five dollars, ($5.), to be paid in advance. All single graves shall be placed in the south side of the cemetery, in regular order, as no choice of ground shall be given to those not purchasing lots.

The rules also govern the purchasers of lots and the duties of sexton and parishioners. The members of the parish must apply to their respective pastors for a burial permit and those not members of either St. Mary's or St. Patrick's congregation must apply to the rector of St. Patrick's for a burial permit.

MINERS' STRIKE MAY BE PUT OFF

Mr. Hanna Secures Concession from Philadelphia and Reading Official.

Walkout Would Affect 327 Collieries and 147,000 Workers, Curtailing Output 5,000,000 Tons a Month, with Loss of $3,000,000 in Wages.

New York, May 6.—It is now possible that there will be no strike in the anthracite coal region. The final decision rests with the joint executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America and the district officers, who will meet Wednesday at Scranton. President John Mitchell left the city to-day to report to his fellow committeemen, and he will have good news for them.

Late last night President Baer of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, through the intervention of Senator Hanna, made some concessions to President Mitchell, which the latter is considering. Mr. Mitchell is busy preparing his report on these lines, and the strike may yet be averted. It is believed, nevertheless, that the concessions will not be accepted and that the chances are strongly in favor of a strike.

Should a strike be declared it will affect 327 collieries, employing 147,000 men and boys and having an output of 5,000,000 tons a month. These collieries distribute $3,000,000 a month in wages, an average to each miner of $1.28 a day. Thirty thousand other workers will be affected.

CUBAN CONGRESS IN SESSION

Both Houses Transact Routine Business and Then Adjourn.

Havana, May 6.—The Cuban senate and house of representatives assembled at noon yesterday in the palace. Governor General Wood made an address, wishing the legislators success, but informing them that no legislative power would be vested in congress until after the formal transfer of the government.

Salvador Cisneros was elected president of the senate, while Pedro Albarran was elected president of the house of representatives. After appointing committees to pass upon credentials, both parties adjourned. Cuban flags were raised on the Palacio Segundo and the admiralty building.

BIG WALL STREET FIRMS SUSPEND

Were Caught by Webb-Meyer Squeeze and Forced to the Wall.

OFFER 20 PER CENT FOR MONEY

Market Bears Up Well Under the Strain and the Failures Are Not Expected to Seriously Affect the General Business Situation.

New York, May 6.—After the close of the market there was still considerable nervousness. Following up the announcement of the suspension of three Stock Exchange firms which were involved in the transactions in the Webb-Meyer securities were rumors of an unfavorable character referring to four other Stock Exchange houses which were involved in the same transactions to some extent. None of these houses is regarded as important and it is understood that through the redemption by Dr. W. Seward Webb of certain shares of the Rutland Railroad at 10¢ one of the houses mentioned in the rumors was helped to a strong position.

The three failures accompanied by rumors of impending failures, and advance in call money to 20 per cent bid and the less favorable news on the anthracite labor situation, were factors which might be expected to create great demoralization at any time. The action of the market under the conditions prevailing was very satisfactory to the larger interests. It is very fortunate that the community involved in the Webb-Meyer collapse is not extensive, and now that the bubble has burst there is a feeling that the financial situation is much better than it was a week ago.

J. Adriance Busch, who was made assignee for the firm of Henry Brothers & Co., said: "If $500,000 could have been raised neither of the three firms which failed need have suspended. All the failures were due to the transactions in the Webb-Meyer stocks. The suspension of Henry Brothers & Co. was due to the fact that they bought stocks for persons who they believed were amply able to take them up, but who were unable to do so when the stocks were delivered.

"If the persons to whom I refer prove able to fulfill their contracts Henry Brothers & Co., will be able to resume quickly, and even if these persons do not pay up I believe Henry Brothers & Co. will be able to pay dollar for dollar."

Rock-a-Bye Baby

These are sweet words, but how much pain and suffering they used to mean. It's different now. Since Mother's Friend has become known expectant mothers have been spared much of the anguish of childbirth. Mother's Friend is a liniment to be applied externally. It is rubbed thoroughly into the muscles of the abdomen. It gives elasticity and strength, and when the final great strain comes they respond quickly and easily without pain. Mother's Friend is never taken internally. Internal remedies at this time do more harm than good. If a woman is supplied with this splendid liniment she need never fear rising or swelling breasts, morning sickness, or any of the discomforts which usually accompany pregnancy.

The proprietor of a large hotel in Tampa, Fla., writes: "My wife had an awful time with her first child. During her second pregnancy, Mother's Friend was used and the baby was born easily before the doctor arrived. It's certainly great."

Cloudburst Drowns Nine.
Oklahoma City, Ok., May 6.—A cloudburst at Foss, 100 miles west, Sunday evening drowned nine persons and left many homeless. Four bodies have been recovered. A mile of the Choctaw railway track was washed out near the town and the loss of town property will amount to $200,000.

HANDICAPPED.

The man who started to run a race in chains and fetters would be visibly handicapped. No one would expect him to succeed. The man who runs the race of life, when his digestive and nutritive organs are diseased is equally handicapped. In the one case his strength is over-weighted, in the other it is undermined. Success demands above all else a sound stomach.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When this is done food is perfectly digested and assimilated and the body receives strength in the only way in which strength can be given—by the nutrition derived from digested and assimilated food.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1015 Bluff Street, Huntington, Pa. "I was taken with what our physicians here said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a quotation blank to fill out, and I did so, and you then advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good."

WEATHER FORECAST.
 Showers this afternoon; fair, cold tonight.

THE NORTHWESTERN DIVISION

Mr. T. A. Lawson, Superintendent of the Wisconsin Division of the C. & N. W. Ry., was in the city yesterday. In discussing the plans and purposes of the company, Mr. Lawson stated that Janesville was the natural division point of the Southern Wisconsin division and that more men would be employed here than in the past. He said that train men were sometimes obliged to move, on account of change in runs, this being done on all divisions, but that so far as Janesville is concerned, there is nothing significant about it at the present time. He confirmed the report that a double track between Harvard and Janesville, was being considered, and said that there was no truth in the rumor, that the Harvard yards were to be enlarged.

He was emphatic in his statement that no change in division headquarters was contemplated by the officials of the road and was surprised that any such talk was current. He said that while the company was frequently obliged to make changes in its train service to meet changed conditions, that these changes would in no way affect Janesville so far as the number of men employed was concerned, and that the employees of the company here would increase rather than decrease.

The Gazette is glad of the opportunity to use Mr. Lawson as authority. He is in a position to know whereof he speaks and his statements will carry weight, because they come from headquarters. It is of course understood that Fond du Lac is an important division point, and that more Northwestern men are required there than in Janesville. This is true of Daraboo and of some other division headquarters. But while it is true, it is nevertheless a fact that railroad interests in Janesville are increasing and with this increase, additional help will be required. The company has no grudge against the town and the people will find that it is ready to join them at any time, in working for the prosperity of the city.

NO FIELD FOR IT

"There is some assumption of surprise over the early surrender of the Janesville Daily News, a Republican paper started about a month ago, and that supported the thoroughbred element of the party. The News was a bright paper, and with a fair show, would have succeeded. But there are already two dailies in Janesville, which, it must be acknowledged, are a fair supply. It was a question of business support from the start with the News, and business men do not patronize a paper and fill it up with advertisements until it can show its circulation and fulfill its promise to benefit them by bringing them trade. It was the failure to endure its lean season, a season that comes to all new papers, that was the cause of the demise of the News. And there was another reason: It was not needed. The Gazette has done far better work politically in the interests of the governor than any new paper, or many old ones could ever do. The governor's friends in Janesville early made up their minds that it is better to make use of the opportunities that were offered by the Gazette than to try to the support of even so worthy an enterprise as the Daily News."—Milwaukee Free Press.

The Gazette takes occasion to say "thank you" to the Milwaukee organ. It is a difficult task to please both wings of the party, and any paper succeeds in the undertaking, may be considered fortunate.

The Gazette has endeavored to be fair with the opposition, and from the Free Press, has succeeded beyond expectations. The home endorsement is equally gratifying, in fact there is so little criticism, that it is hard to realize that the party in the home field is divided. The paper has been of the opinion that its party contingency was largely of the conservative class. If the Milwaukee organ will adopt a different policy, it may win a few friends from the opposition.

THE CORN KING

In another part of the paper will be found an interesting sketch of Geo. H. Phillips, familiarly known as the young Corn King of Chicago. Mr. Phillips is one of the best advertised men in the country. As he says of himself, the papers devoted space to him when he was on the crest of the wave, and they were equally interested when it was discovered that his pocket book was not as long as the other fellows.

Mr. Phillips belongs to the class of men that can't be kept down. He combines with honesty, intelligence, and determination, and he enjoys the confidence of a large constituency. The expressions of condolence, that came to him from all parts of the West, when he was in financial trouble were very significant and the profers of help when he was down, evidenced the confidence that his honesty inspired.

While it may not be safe for the average young man to enter the field of speculation, it is safe for him to study the elements of character possessed by Mr. Phillips.

HE IS RESPONSIBLE

The Marinette Star takes issue with a recent statement by the Post that Gov. LaFollette is solely responsible, primarily at least, for the schism which exists in the Republican party in this state. It is a fact, however, which needs only this exemplification to make it apparent. The cause of serious differences among Wisconsin Republicans is not due to the governor's espousal of certain measures which may have warmly commended themselves to his judgment. His advocacy of those measures might have been ever so intense within proper bounds, and yet there would never have been a breach in his party. This rupture is due in part to his attempted dictation to the legislature and especially to his exhortation of that body and all Republicans who exercised the constitutional right of disagreeing with him. Such a course on the part of a chief executive is without precedent in this country, unless we go back to anti-revolutionary times, when the appointees of King George and his predecessors undertook to lord it over the people of their respective colonies, which was one of the principle causes of the great revolt. No more now than then are such imperious methods tolerable to self-respecting freemen.—Appleton Post.

THE WHITEHEAD LETTERS

The letters of Senator Whitehead are being very generally read and the sentiment expressed is liberally endorsed. They contain a fund of information, that is reliable and the impartial manner in which it is presented, can not fail to be recognized. Senator Whitehead is in position to deal with the history of the last legislature intelligently, because he helped to make it. What he has to say about the primary law is logical, and neither influenced by sentiment nor prejudice. The arguments that he produces against the primary election law, as advocated by the Stevens bill, are strong and convincing. He claims that the law would be unconstitutional, as well as objectionable. The letters will be continued and will serve as a good educator. During the discussion the field of taxation will be covered and the people will have an opportunity to know where the Senator stands on this important question.

The Sunday papers contained a detailed statement of the Carnegie library donations, which show a grand total of $63,000,000. Mr. Carnegie is building monuments, which will serve to keep his memory green, after he has gone, and yet there are people who think that the old gentleman acquired more money than he was entitled to, forgetting the fact that much of his wealth would have been hid away in the mines, benefitting no one, but for the wonderful resources of the man who developed them.

The time to lock the stable is before the horse is stolen and the time to make plans for the safe return of Senator Spooner is before any of the conventions are held. It is all well enough for the governor's shouters to claim that they are Spooner men. They may be at heart, but they are LaFollette men first, and if given opportunity, will line up as directed.

Temperance workers are waking up to the fact that boys can be saved from intemperance by putting something in place of the saloon, better than by fighting the saloon. Temperance resorts are becoming popular in many cities. The work is practical and entitled to encouragement.

It requires an acrobat to ride two horses, especially when going in opposite directions. It will be a little amusing to watch ex-governor Hoard, with his double mount, Dahle and Adams.

Men pride themselves on being free moral agents. Congressman Dahle flattered himself that he was a free man, and never discovered the difference until he was turned out to grass.

The Hand Book is a little small for entry shelves, and a little heavy for light reading. As a general utility book, its mission has not yet been discovered.

PRESS COMMENT

La Crosse Republican and Leader: While Governor LaFollette may be justified in publishing a book on what he has said, it may be pertinent to ask why somebody does not say something about what the governor has done.

Madison Journal: Hon. H. B. Dahle congressman for this district, left Washington last night for home. He will be met by local leaders, and his campaign arranged. As most of the stalwarts have given H. C. Adams a happy world, it is wondered how straight they can keep their faces when he gets off the train.

Racine Journal: What does the esteemed Wisconsin State Journal mean in the following paragraph: "With the amount taken from the people for the support of game warden a brace of ducks might be presented to every family in the state with a fat bass as an alternative for those who do not relish game." Coming from the Madison representative of the executive perhaps it is not unreasonable to ask what it means.

Monroe Journal: It is too well known to be disputed that the Governor is a political enemy of Senator Spooner. There are some unsophisticated people who talk and believe that many of the so-called half-breed leaders favor Spooner's election. Such talk is nonsense—if a LaFollette legislature is elected, Senator Spooner will be fired out of the senate bodily, speaking metaphorically. His able services to the state and nation would not receive even a commendation. The feeling toward Senator Spooner is felt by the leaders of the half-breeds, and all their smooth, political talk is for the purpose of deceiving the people.

Green Bay Gazette: It rarely happens nowadays that a business venture proves to be a flat failure, yet one is reported from Janesville. It is the Daily News, a paper established for the purpose of booming LaFollette and it is said to have been backed up by half-breed dunces. The backing failed to materialize and the paper has thereupon, failed to make its customary appearance. Papers established or purchased by partisans and for political purposes, rarely succeed, except in tapping heavily the pocket books of the backers. The people want a paper run on business principles with politics as a side issue and not as the "main show," and they bestow their patronage accordingly.

When at Madison last week I asked Henry Overbeck, chairman of the congressional committee, when he would call a convention to nominate a successor to Mr. Minor. "Not until after the state convention has met and nominated Gov. LaFollette, if I have my way was," the reply. "And what is more, when it does meet I shall go all I can to beat Minor." I am not a betting man, but I will venture the price of the cigars on the proposition that Minor will win all the same. E. R. PETHERICK.—Milwaukee Journal.

Henry Overbeck, grand high priest of the Ancient and Amalgamated Order of Badgerdom Salpe Guardians cruder oil Capp Protectors and ex-facto first lieutenant of the United Union of Kerosene Dissectors and Political Lubricators, having tired of being continually being turned down over in his own part of the district, drifted over to Appleton—the political club of Outagamia County—last week and spent several days attending to what he makes the duty of his office, namely talking politics.—Tomah Times.

Milwaukee Journal: Every well-informed politician now admits that the LaFollette machine is for Leitch for congress, and that it hoped to use Dahle to keep the Dane county delegation from Adams. The LaFollette men make no secret of their belief that Adams is really a stalwart, and the local LaFollette organ today makes this clear when it says editorially: "Mr. Adams, it is believed, will receive the full stalwart support of the district."

Daraboo Republic: The United States senate is getting to be a menagerie. Senators Tillman and Mooney have each made quite a show; and now there is a blind pig turned loose where the members of that august body refresh themselves.

Home Sentiment

Nels Holman, of Deerfield, has this to say of Gov. LaFollette's treatment of Congressman Dahle: "Ever since the governor came out of the university he has acted on the principle that no man in the state has any right politically if he interferes with his own personal ambition. In Dane county, for instance, if any man asked for delegates when the governor wanted them for himself or for trading purposes, the governor has regarded it as a case of lese majeste. The governor, it possessed of any sense of gratitude, cannot afford to throw Mr. Dahle overboard. In the first place, Mr. Dahle went into the race in what was then regarded as a democratic district more to help LaFollette politically than for any other reason. He went into the fight and made a splendid run. The treatment of Mr. Dahle ought to convince the Norwegians that instead of being their friend, Gov. LaFollette merely regarded them as trading stock to be bartered at will."—Stoughton Hub.

The oleo bill was passed by the house yesterday, with the senate amendments, the oleo interests failing to get in a single amendment. The bill now goes to the president for approval and signature. Every dairyman in the land should rejoice, and with him every other citizen who cares to know whether he is eating genuine butter or genuine grease.—Fort Atkinson Union.

Price cuts no figure, lots of poor people were satisfied with wholesome "grease."

BOOM FOR BEET. SUGAR FACTORY

Business Men Will Meet
Tonight to Consider a Proposition.

TO MAP OUT PLAN

Offer of the Wisconsin Beet
Sugar Co. Meets the Approval of All.

GROWTH OF THE BEET

The meeting of the Janesville Business Men's club this evening is for the consideration of a proposition that means much for Janesville. The beet sugar industry is growing every year and opens up a new field for the farmer and truck grower that equals in profits land that is used for raising tobacco. One thing that particularly recommends the beet industry to the farmer is the certainty of the crop. It is not like tobacco which grows entirely above ground and where injury to leaves destroys the crop, but is protected by the soil from hail and wind.

There is no reason why Southern Wisconsin cannot be made one of the best beet growing districts in the United States. The soil is adapted to the culture of beets and when once it has secured a foothold among the farmers they will not let it diminish but will increase their acreage each year.

Tobacco is a crop that pays large dividends for the acreage, but it is not to be compared with sugar beets acre for acre, and there is not the attendant loss occasioned by hail and wind that tobacco is subject to. Take it all in all the farmers of Rock county could make many an extra dollar by raising sugar beets for a large sugar factory.

A few suggestions in regard to raising sugar beets here would not be out of place here to give the farmers an idea of what is necessary to successfully raise a crop of this kind.

First: Never select poor soil, use the best land available on your farm. The better the soil is the larger the crop. Never put beets on an exposed slope where the soil is liable to blow or wash. The beet grows in almost any soil except pure sand or gravel. The best soil suited for the normal development of beets is a rich sandy loam with a porous clay sub-soil. A soil generally rich in nitrogenous matter is not so adaptable for this crop, while a shallow soil with a hard subsoil is to be avoided entirely.

Too much attention cannot be paid to the preparation of a good, compact seed bed, which is necessary to make beet raising a success. Fall plowing is the most important factor in that respect. The land that is selected to be sown to beets in the spring should be cleared of all trash, corn stalks, etc., and plowed the preceding fall. Plow the soil two or three inches deep as soon as the previous crop has been harvested, and after the weeds have started plow from seven to nine inches deep to kill the weeds, loosening the bottom of furrow five or six inches deeper.

Deep fall plowing will facilitate the access of snow and rain water. Deeply plowed ground always holds moisture best; the plowed ground and the retaining of moisture are of utmost importance. If your land is plowed in the fall do not replot it in the spring.

The only seed to be selected is that tested by government experts and selected as the proper variety adapted to your soil. Thus the best possible yield is guaranteed. Early planting of seed on sandy loam between April 20 and May 5 is recommended. On heavy soils a later planting from May 10 to June 1 is recommended.

Beets require about five months to fully develop. If an early harvest is desired the seed should be planted as early as possible in order to take care of a large acreage a few acres should be planted at a time, about a week apart. It takes about eighteen pounds of seed to one acre, so that a good stand will be secured. The seed should not be planted more than one-half inch deep in heavy soil and for dry soil three-quarters of an inch is enough. The rows should not be over eighteen or twenty inches apart.

The main object of cultivating is to keep the land free from weeds. Care should be taken to thin out the plants when they are from two to three weeks old, to allow them to be thinned again when older.

The beets are harvested by being plowed out by a small plow which loosens them and allows them to be pulled by hand. They are then topped just below the lower leaf with a sharp knife and are ready for the sugar mill. The tops of the beets make fine feed for cattle and sheep so that nothing is lost by topping them.

An industry of this kind would be a great thing for Janesville. It would not only put money in the farmers' pockets but would furnish employment for a large number of men and boys.

Every member of the Business Men's club should be present this evening.

CULLOM TALKS FOR SOLDIERS

Says the Boys Are Subjected to Atrocities in the Philippines.

ARE FIGHTING A CRUEL ENEMY

Describes the Filipinos as a Treacherous People Who Pretend to Be Friendly and Assassinate the Soldiers When Their Backs Are Turned.

Washington, May 6.—"Our soldiers in the Philippines," said Senator Cullom, "have been subjected to more atrocities, perhaps, than any other army in the world, and it is but natural there should be deep resentment on the part of the troops and a desire to retaliate. Our boys have been stabbed in the back by supposed friendly natives, buried alive, mutilated, tortured in the most fiendish manner, and have been subjected to cruelties which seem beyond the conception of the human mind.

"We are not a cruel people and our soldiers are not savages. They love fair treatment and respect an honorable foe. But when the natives of the Philippine Islands, who pretend to be our friends, assassinate our soldiers it is not strange that there is a desire to retaliate and that the natives who were guilty of these atrocities were made to pay the penalty in some instances. No civilized person could defend the practice of torture under ordinary circumstances, but there seems to be some excuse for it when men are goaded into retaliatory actions by witnessing the assassination of their comrades.

"I do not defend the practice of torture, neither do I defend the practice of firing in the rear upon men who are doing their duty to their nation and are giving up their lives. I have no patience with copperheads. They are a disgrace to the nation. Our people have no use for them, and if the Democrats think they will benefit by trying to blacken the illustrious achievements of the American army they are much mistaken. We have been silent under the senseless attacks, but the country became uneasy and was asking us if the army of today is made up of cutthroats and blackguards.

"The army needs no defense, but the time is now past when we should sit in silence and listen to outrageous insults heaped upon the service which has always reflected renown upon the nation. As these attacks continued it was decided to show the country the facts in the case and let the people know what our men have suffered and let them decide whether or not the few instances of torture were justified."

DOINGS IN THE SENATE.

Discusses Philippine Civil Government and Passes Appropriations.

Washington, May 6.—Most of the day in the senate was taken up by Senator Lodge with a speech on the Philippine civil government bill. The sundry civil appropriation bill was passed with amendments, providing for the dedication of the St. Louis exposition on April 30, 1903, and that the exposition shall be opened to visitors not later than May 1, 1904; appropriating $25,000 for the commissioner of labor to collect statistics of marriage and divorce; constituting the Secretary of the Treasury, the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Interior a commission to select a site in Washington City for a hall of records, the limit of cost of the site being $500,000 and that for the building being $500,000; appropriating $165,000 for repairs to the White House in lieu of the $48,900 heretofore provided and appropriating $50,000 more for a temporary office building to be used while the repairs to the White House are in progress. The bill for the purchase of the Rosebud Indian reservation was passed with an amendment eliminating the commutation clause and providing that settlers, in order to make good their titles to the land, shall live on it for five years. The bill changing the terms of the Circuit courts of the United States within the first circuit was also passed. The Senate then adjourned in respect to the memory of Congressman Otey.

Death of Mr. Otey.

Washington, May 6.—An urgency resolution making additional appropriations of $10,000 for the expenses incident to the dedication of the statue of Marshall de Rochambeau was adopted by the house. Mr. Jones (Va.) announced the death of Representative Otey and offered the customary resolutions of regret. The speaker appointed the following committee to attend the funeral: Messrs. Jones, Swanson, Rixey, Hay, Lamb, Rhea and Flood of Virginia; Hepburn (Iowa), Meyer (La.), Jennings (Wis.), Lanham (Tex.), Olmstead (Pa.), DeArmond (Mo.) and McCall (Mass.). The house then adjourned as a further mark of respect.

Will Deport Chinese.

Washington, May 6.—The chief justice of the United States supreme court rendered opinions in two test cases affecting the transit of Chinamen through the United States to other countries, sustaining the action of the government authorities in having them detained at San Francisco. The result will be the deportation to China of the fifty Chinese who have been detained there five months.

MRS. SOFFEL PLEADS GUILTY

Sheriff's Wife, Who Aided Prisoners to Escape, Confesses in Court.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 6.—Mrs. Kate Soffel, wife of Warden Soffel of the Allegheny county jail, who figured in the sensational escape and recapture of the Biddle brothers last January, was called into court yesterday morning and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of aiding and abetting in the escape of prisoners.

She will receive her sentence next Saturday. The maximum penalty is two years in the penitentiary.

Charge Crime to Highblinder.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 6.—The Chinamen of this city are in a state of terror as the result of the mysterious murder of Doc Lung, a wealthy Chinese laundryman. It is the general belief that the crime was committed by a highblinder.

To Adjourn June 10.

Washington, May 6.—The senate steering committee is preparing a program for the remaining days of the present session of congress. It practically has been agreed that congress shall adjourn June 10. This is much earlier than has been expected and the decision of the committee will make it uncertain whether the Philippine committee will finish its investigation of affairs in those islands.

May Call Extra Session.

Washington, May 6.—President Roosevelt has said to almost a dozen callers within the last week, some of them members of the senate, that if the Cuban reciprocity bill is not passed before this congress adjourns he will at once call an extra session and insist that such legislation be passed.

Court-Martial for Venice Affair.

Washington, May 6.—At the suggestion of Capt. Dayton of the Chicago Secretary Moody has authorized that officer to convene a court of inquiry to look into the matters connected with the arrest and imprisonment of officers of the Chicago at Venice.

Root Reports on Cuba.

Washington, May 6.—A cabinet meeting was held yesterday. Secretary Root told of conditions as he found them in Cuba. No business of public interest was transacted.

Fatal Waterspout in Oklahoma.

Anadarko, Okla., May 6.—A report was received here of a waterspout at Foss, a town on the Choctaw Railway, in which it is said twelve persons were drowned. The Washita River is said to have risen ten feet. Anadarko people living on the bottoms fronting the river are hurrying to higher ground.

Joliet School Remains Open.

Joliet, Ill., May 6.—Health Commissioner Kahn did not press his order for an absolute closing of the Richard street school. A committee of physicians declared the building in an unsanitary condition and recommended new heating and closet systems. These the school board will probably put in this summer.

Nature Smiling While Thousands Suffer.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Great Spring Health Giver Makes Sick People Well.

Prominent Clergyman Tells How He Escaped From His Deadly Perils.

When spring comes with its gentle showers, its balmy air, its bright sunshine and bursting buds, it too often brings to our homes scenes of suffering and physical decay.

The seeds of disease which were imperceptibly germinating during the winter months and planted in the system dangers that now call for our instant care and attention. Neglect and procrastination will only deepen existing perils and lead to death.

Before the advent of spring, you must have noted symptoms, perhaps of indigestion, dyspepsia, rheumatism, neuralgia, kidney disease, liver complaint, functional irregularities, or nervous disorders.

Take warning sufferers! the symptoms you experience are signals of disease. Delay not another day; hesitation and indecision on your part may forever seal your fate. If you have already made efforts to banish your troubles by the use of other medicines and the treatment of physicians, and these have failed, we counsel you to put your full trust in that great disease banisher, Paine's Celery Compound. Its use for a week or two will convince you that you have fully commenced a new existence. Rev. W. E. Aldridge, a leading and prominent clergyman of Birmingham, Ala., says:

"I had been afflicted for ten years with what I thought to be heart disease, but after having the physicians examine me, I learned that I was almost dead from indigestion. They told me that they could give me medicine that would relieve me, but there was no permanent cure. Then I began using Paine's Celery Compound, which gave me immediate relief, and I am now well and enjoying good health. I can recommend Paine's Celery Compound to be the best medicine for all ailments; if people will use the Compound freely, they will have no doctor bills to pay."

Diamond Dyes are the simplest ones made. A child can use them.

The News From County Towns.

MILTON.—The college ball team opened the season last Friday by winning from Beloit Academy to the tune of 14 to 10. Wishing to save a good boxer for their game Saturday Beloit began the game with a dead one on the slab, and in two innings the locals accumulated eleven runs. The new man proved a tougher proposition and allowed but three in the remaining innings. The college team did good work until the sixth, when they let up relying on his infield, which misplaced confidence netted the Academy boys six runs. The longest hit was a three-bagger by Whitford. Battery for Milton, Bliss and Robinson. Umpire, Clem W. Crumb.

The concert on Thursday evening tested the capacity of the congregational church despite the unfavorable weather. The Flisk jubilee singers are by all odds the finest troupe that ever appeared here and every number on their program received a hearty encore and they were deserved. Their chorus work was wonderful in harmony and the male quartet the best that a Milton audience has had the pleasure of hearing for many a day. Their impersonator was an artist in his specialty and was recalled the third time.

Died.—At the home of her nephew near Eldora, Iowa, April 22, Eleanor McCarthy. Deceased came to Milton with her parents in 1839 and was for many years a resident of Rock county. She was well known to our older residents and was an aunt of Ira McNitt of this place.

AWFUL ULCERS

Facial Sores and Blotches a Sign of Blood Disease.

Such Troubles Cured by Vinol.

The face that is blotched or covered with unsightly pimples is not only a source of mortification and annoyance but is dangerous.

Where such a condition exists there must be something radically wrong.

When such eruptions become worse and give place to ulcers the danger is, of course, enhanced. Ulcers frequently form first on any of the great vital organs, especially the stomach.

Won't you, if you suffer from any such blood impurities give us the opportunity of telling you how you can get rid of such ills safely and quickly. Our Vinol will help you.

This, we firmly believe, and the reason for our belief is that we have learned that Vinol in its mission of rebuilding the body and creating strength does as much in the way of purifying the blood as it does in creating new, healthy flesh tissue. In making the body strong and healthy it invigorates everyone of the great vital organs and enables them to properly perform their work.

Impurities of the blood are thus more quickly displaced by new health elements that are taken by the stomach from the food which by means of Vinol is fully assimilated.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Vinol. For over a year I was severely troubled with ulcerated stomach which caused me much pain; for three months I could not eat any solid food. I became weak, tired and all run down and lost much flesh. Hearing of the great merit of Vinol, I bought a bottle, and after giving it a good trial, I feel better in every way, and must give all the praise to Vinol." MARY E. BRANT, 21 Prescott Street, Mansfield, Ohio.

Remember our faith in Vinol is so strong that we sell it on a guarantee and will gladly refund to anyone the cost of the remedy who is not satisfied with the results obtained by its use.

WM. BURCHELL

Mrs. May Webb, President Woman's Kaffe-klatch Club, Menasha, Wis., is Advised by Her Doctor to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Inflammation of the Womb, and is Cured. She says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—How little we appreciate health until it has left us; then it appears as the most precious gift to mankind. I enjoyed good health until four years ago when I caught a severe cold at the menstrual period. I thought little of it at that time, but when nine weeks after I found it had settled into inflammation of the womb, I wished I had been more careful. I suffered agonies for months; lost my happy disposition, and nothing seemed worth having if I could not have my health. My good old doctor, after prescribing several worthless remedies, was good enough to say 'Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, several of my patients have been cured through its use.' I did so; I had great expectations, and it did not disappoint me. Before the first bottle was used I felt relief; I took it faithfully for nine weeks, and that blessed Compound surely cured me. It seemed to build up all the weak parts, allayed the inflammation, and brought blessed health back to me. I know how to appreciate it, and I know also that it was due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound only."—MRS. MARY WEBB, Menasha, Wis.
